

Requirements of Salvation

God wants all to come to salvation, The devil wants you to always doubt your salvation
The choice is yours, who are you going to listen to?

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance, 2nd Peter 3:9.

The requirement for salvation.

If you confess the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved, Romans 10:9.

This scripture has two conditions

1. That you confess the Lord Jesus, (as your Savior).
Simply confess Jesus with your mouth.
2. That you believe in your heart that God raise His Son from the dead. If we believe in God whom created heaven and earth, mankind and all that we see. It should not be difficult for us to believe that God could raise and did raise His Son Jesus from the dead.

Nether condition speaks of our deeds, whether be bad or good. It is all due to Jesus Christ's finished work on the cross and we cannot change that, all we need to do is confess and believe.

The next step, discipleship.

Become familiar with the Bible and God's Word. The Bible is a fascinating book; it contains all types of human situations, circumstances, emotions and decisions made, both good and bad, their cause and effects. God's Word is easy to live under, it is a guide for our life and you can find peace and contentment through it, something the world promises but is unable to deliver on.

It is my hope that this site will create for you an interest in the Bible, to study and learn the Word of God for yourself.
