Relax, God knows where we are and what we need.

32 For the nations seek after all these things. For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow; for tomorrow shall be anxious for its own things. Sufficient to the day is the evil of it. Matthew 6:32-34.

Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by prayer, supplication and thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God, Philippians 4:6.

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear Him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell, Matthew 10:28 & {Luke 12:4}.

God is a God of peace and righteousness;

Melchisedec, by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; Hebrews 7:2.

Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen, Romans 15:33.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, Isaiah 9:6.

Jesus came: to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke 1:79.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Luke 2:14.

Peace is part of the full armor of God.

And (keep) your feet shod (walking in) the preparation of the gospel of peace; Ephesians 6:15.

If we are not walking in peace, we will not only be ineffective in battle but we will become vulnerable to further fearful attacks.

. . . and having done all, to stand, Ephesians 6:13.

Most importantly

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. If the two scriptures below were not true, all else would be useless.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: Romans 5:1

For He is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Ephesians 2:14.

Holding on to our peace is essential.

God's kingdom operates in righteousness, peace, and joy. Peace is not just a personal state that we will experience when we get to heaven, but scripture tells us that we are to learn and operate in that inner peace while here on this earth.

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost, Romans 14:17.

And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace, James 3:18.

. . . but to the counselors of peace is joy, Proverbs 12:20.

Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another, Romans 14:19

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace, Romans 8:6.

And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful, Colossians 3:15.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:Hebrews 12:14.

I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makes me dwell in safety, Psalm 4:8.

These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. John 16:3.

A prayer to the Father:

Father, I exalt and magnify Your name, for all honor and glory belongs to You. I thank You that You are a God of peace, Romans 15:33, and Your kingdom was established and operates in love, peace, and joy, Romans 14:7.

I thank You, Father, that Jesus not only bore our infirmities and sicknesses, but also the chastisement of our peace was placed upon Him, Isaiah 53:5. Jesus took upon Himself our fears and failures that resulted in our peace being taken from us. Thus, I pray that the peace of God that passes all understanding, Philippians 4:7, will guard my heart and mind.

I choose to fix my mind on You, for true inner peace is only found through knowing You, Isaiah 26:3, for You are our true peace, Ephesians 2:14. As I meditate on Your Word, grant me the grace that I may be at peace as I face the trials this world sets before me. I ask that even through times of weakness, that I may find strength and peace in You and You alone, knowing that You will never leave me or forsake me, Hebrews 13:5.

Amen

Peace Scriptures
let go, and let God

For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind, 2nd Timothy 1:7.

The purpose of this booklet is to present peace scriptures, for only God gives us perfect peace. For God has never intended His people to live in degrees of fear or, as it's often called in today's terminology, living under constant stress.

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world gives, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid, John 14:27.

And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus, Philippians 4:7.

Walking in God's peace (the peace that passes all understanding) only comes to us through trusting in God.

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 2nd Peter 1:2.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusts in thee, Isaiah 26:3.

Peace is a fruit of the spirit.

It's required and even expected that all believers walk in the peace that Jesus Christ has provided for all of mankind.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Galatians 5:22.
